SUBJECT: SANDRA GOOD;
MAE MAGNIN BRUSSELL - VICTIM
EXTORTION
OO: San Francisco

On 11/3/75, victim furnished copy of extortion letter to interviewing agents. Letter reads as follows:

> "MAE, you are thinking yourself in a circle of madness. CHARLES MANSON has been 28 years in Prison and all that B.S. you are running is only a reflection of what the news and books have programmed your soul's mind brain to.
>
> You are looking for attention. It seems as if you are looking for your death wish in the Family.
>
> /s/ SANDRA GOOD"

Victim also pointed out that she has received three telephone calls from unknown persons, one of which was threatening in nature. During the telephone call in question, unidentified caller stated "You had better start growing a vegetable garden or you won't be around long."

For the information of the Bureau, victim is a resident of Carmel Valley, California, who is self-employed as a public speaker, author, columnist, and occasionally heads up a local sensationalistic radio program. The dominant theme in all of the victim's public communications centers around her belief that Federal agencies, notably FBI and CIA, are engaged in a massive conspiracy. She believes that all parties to the conspiracy have been instrumental in carrying out the following events: The JOHN KENNEDY and ROBERT KENNEDY assassinations; MARTIN LUTHER KING assassination; PATRICIA HEARST kidnapping; MANSON Gang murders; and, formation of the SLA. She believes that the FBI and CIA have planted "agent provocators" to carry out the aforementioned activities.

The foregoing information was furnished to Assistant United States Attorney F. STEELE LANGFORD, who stated that the contents of the extortion letter did not ammount to a threat. In view of the foregoing, no additional investigation will be conducted by the San Francisco Division. Victim was advised to change her telephone number to an unlisted number and to immediately contact the FBI upon receipt of any additional such communications.
